

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

By MRS. HELEN ALLISON
Mailing 4-3430

North Torrance Elementary PTA members turned out en masse this week for the breakfast and white elephant auction held at the home of Mrs. Perry Sale, 17208 Ardath avenue. Around 10 o'clock approximately 35 ladies entered Mrs. Sale's back yard, and less than two hours later Auctioneer Mrs. Harry Van Bellechem (who incidentally excelled in this line, had swelled the treasury by $147.

Mrs. Sale, Babbs, Sherwood and Melles kept the cups filled with steaming coffee while the girls tried to outbid each other. Principal Robinson had a standing 10-cent bid. Helen Ferrin went broke, but floated a quick loan and was back in the fun. Marion Ross, Helen Wiebe and Lynn Hale were among those going home loaded with their "sight-unseen" bargains.

Tiny paper teacups with each lady's name written on them, enabled friendly conversations to spring from each table. Without a doubt there will be a lot "cutting-up" going on in the neighborhood in the near future for Van Bellechem sold key-chain scissors to all!

The NTCIA celebrated its second anniversary this week. The crowd was served by Myrtle Dyer with coffee and a piece of the beautiful cake, loaded with yellow roses. President Bert Johnson presented the gavel to the newly elected president, Jack White. (This gavel was made by Mrs. Bert Johnson's father, Mr. Eugene R. Kaar of Minneapolis, Minn.) Each new officer, and chairman outlined the things they hoped to accomplish in the coming year.

Community Church Circle met at the home of Mrs. Ed Collins, 17025 Crenshaw boulevard, this past week and plans were made for a hahn dinner and bazaar to be at McMaster Hall November 30. Scrapbooks were prepared for delivery to the hospitals.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnon Wiebe, 17303 Atkinson avenue, and Mrs. Louise Nickolson, 17003 Glenburn avenue, have been attending the services of Billy Graham at Hollywood Bowl, and were present at the showing of "Mr. Texas," a Christian movie.

All good things come to those who wait, or so thinks Mrs. Millie McBoe, 17315 Atkinson avenue, after receiving her new blonde spinet this week. Hope the neighbors like piano music.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lush, 2715 West 174th street, who celebrated their wedding anniversary this week. Mr. and Mrs. Lush and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Anderson enjoyed a delicious sea-food dinner at the Fish Shanty, in honor of the occasion.

Mr. Andy Irvin of 4239 West 178th place has been called to Canada, due to the illness of his mother.

On our sick list we have Ed Grimsley, 4320 West 174th place, and Mrs. Virginia Gatti, 4248 West 178th place. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Emily Burnham, mother of Mrs. J. R. Long, 17239 Cassmer avenue, has gone to New York to visit relatives.

Joyce Johnson, 2719 West 174th street, was a very charming 4-year-old hostess to a group of small friends in honor of her birthday Saturday. A very pretty cake was the highlight of the party. Pink and blue bonnets of paper, filled with candy, caught the children's eyes. Among those of this very young set attending were: John Gaw, Sonny Lush, Nancy Johnson, Benny Anderson, Stephen Kerstine, Marilyn Halstead, Marlene Feynamik, and Sandy Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Briggs,

SAFeway

What about Prices that are NOT in Safeway Ads?

Checking food ads is a good way to learn about low prices. But the ads can't tell the whole story. At best they include only a few of the items on your entire shopping list. So savings made on "specials" can easily be wiped out unless your other purchases are made at the right prices.

That's why Safeway's pricing policy says that every item must be priced low. This means savings to you right down the line... not just on our advertised specials, but on everything. So start today to save at Safeway, where all prices are always low.
